From the Principal's Desk

The following poem gives us much food for thought:

I am at my best with the wind in my face,
When overcoming the challenge, with pace.

The pace that requires more effort, more strength.
But once gained momentum endures with great length.

It's easy to sit back, placid and calm
Comfort is only a relative balm.

It seems an advantage, better than strife,
but it dulled by stagnation, stifling life.

Progress needs movement, energy, drive,
No chance for improvement if you do not strive.

Nothing's for nothing: cause and effect.
That which you work for, you've more chance to get.

So give me the wind, let it blow in my face,
the more I confront, the more strength I'll embrace.

Steps are not mounted, nor challenges overcome.
Without certain courage or effort be done.

Have a good week

ATHLETICS Well done to our Athletes who ran yesterday at Bryneven, coming second overall. Their behaviour and courageous spirit is to be applauded. Please ensure that your child attends all practices and if unable to attend that they excuse themselves with the relevant coach. The attendance, behaviour and dress code have an important role to play when awards are given at the end of the season.

CHESS NEWS  The team that played in the District Finals at Lyndhurst last week did not perform particularly well but impressed the organisers so much that they all received medals for good behaviour – Ethan Hamza, Alice Zhang, Kushi Chahar, Kai Santos, Damien Deonarian, Shane Pelser, and Kia de Saldanha. In addition, Kia received a special medal for assisting the organisers. Eddie Price (011)782-7544

The match against Houghton on Monday was, sadly, a massacre. In addition to those above Jonathan Hamza, Yuvan Pillay, Diashen Padayachee, and Mogale Mokgosi participated but the only points-scorer was Kai Santos with 1.5 out of 2 Eddie Price (011)782-7544
